Aquilan Announces On-Demand Risk Audit
New Service Will Proactively Identify
AML Risks for Insurance, Broker/Dealer and Mutual Funds

AUSTIN, TX – April 9, 2009 – Aquilan, a leading provider of anti-money laundering compliance and fraud solutions, today announced the newest addition to its consulting offerings, Aquilan Risk Audit, an on-demand consulting service designed to proactively identify higher risk operational activities that increase vulnerability to terrorist financing, money laundering and fraud.

With Aquilan's Risk Audit a detailed analysis of an organizations anti-money laundering operations is conducted in an effort to identify potential operational oversights, which may leave an organization at risk for compliance violations and fraud. Automated analytical tools, enhanced with customized rules, thresholds and indicators, highlight suspicious activities and trigger red flags to notify the organization of potential risks requiring further investigation and review.

"We are excited to offer this breakthrough service to better protect organizations and ensure USA PATRIOT Act compliance", says Clifford Hagler, president and chief executive officer at Aquilan. "The unique insights gained from our audit give organizations the power to proactively adjust operations to reduce their risk of AML compliance violations and fraud."

Aquilan's Risk Audit is a three phase process that consists of discovery, data analysis and recommendations and can be completed in three weeks. For more information on the Aquilan Risk Audit, visit the Aquilan website at <http://www.Aquilan.com/Services/RiskAudit.aspx>.
